The Honorable William D. Ford
Chairman, Committee on Post
Office and Civil Service
House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Your February 10, 1987, letter forwarded a request by the Chairwoman, Subcommittee on Civil Service, that we review the conversion of noncareer appointees to career positions. In subsequent discussions with the Subcommittee, we agreed to request information from 60 executive branch departments and agencies on conversions for the period January 1, 1987, through February 28, 1989. We also agreed that conversions would include appointments of employees to career positions of any grade from noncareer GS-12 positions or above, including the Senior Executive Service (SES).

The Subcommittee requested that we provide summary statistical information on conversions reported to us as occurring during the 9-month period ending September 30, 1987, and provide quarterly reports thereafter. In three previous fact sheets, we reported on conversions for the period January 1, 1987, through March 31, 1988.¹ This fact sheet covers conversions during the period April 1, 1988, through June 30, 1988.

APPROACH

As agreed with the Subcommittee, we asked the agencies to provide information on conversions each month of all noncareer employees, including Schedule C, noncareer

¹Federal Employees: Appointees Converted to Career Positions, January Through September 1987 (GAO/GGD-88-31FS, Jan. 28, 1988). Federal Employees: Appointees Converted to Career Positions, October Through December 1987 (GAO/GGD-88-67FS, Mar. 25, 1988). Federal Employees: Appointees Converted to Career Positions, January Through March 1988 (GAO/GGD-88-100FS, June 24, 1988).

SES, noncareer executive assignment, limited term, limited emergency, and temporary, including consultant or expert. We also asked agencies for information on persons who received career appointments on the basis of employment in the Office of the President or Vice President or on the White House staff, and persons who received career appointments on the basis of employment in the legislative or judicial branches under the provisions of the Ramspeck Act. We did not verify the information from the agencies for completeness or accuracy or determine the propriety of any of the conversions reported to us. Appendix I provides definitions of the career and noncareer appointments discussed in this fact sheet.

RESULTS

For April 1, 1988, through June 30, 1988, 32 agencies reported that they had not appointed any noncareer employees to career positions. The remaining 28 agencies reported 70 conversions, with the Federal Home Loan Bank Board reporting 10, the largest number of conversions. Fifty-six of the 70 conversions were competitive appointments, and 14 were noncompetitive appointments.

The competitive and noncompetitive designations refer to the legal authorities cited by the agencies to make the appointments, not to the process used to fill positions. For example, a competitive process, such as issuing a job vacancy announcement, may identify an individual with noncompetitive appointment eligibility whom the agency appoints citing a noncompetitive legal authority.

On July 8, 1988, we sent letters to the 60 executive branch departments and agencies emphasizing that they should report conversions from all types of noncareer appointments to career positions. As a result, several of the departments and agencies submitted information on conversions that occurred during previous reporting periods (Jan. 1, 1987, to Mar. 31, 1988). Twenty-one of the 70 conversions reported to us for the quarter ending June 30, 1988, actually occurred during prior periods.

Details of the 49 conversions reported by the agencies for the period April 1, 1988, through June 30, 1988, as well as the 21 that were reported to have taken place in prior periods, are shown in appendixes II through V. Appendixes VI and VII provide cumulative information for January 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988.

B-229408

As arranged with the Subcommittee, we plan no further distribution of this fact sheet until 30 days after the date of issuance, unless you publicly announce its contents earlier. At that time, we will send it to interested parties and make copies available to others upon request. If you have questions, please call me on 275-5074.

Sincerely yours,

Bernard L. Ungar

ABBREVIATION

SES Senior Executive Service

Definitions of Career and Noncareer Appointments¹

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| Career | -- A permanent appointment in the competitive service for which the appointee is either in career-conditional status or has met the service requirements for career tenure and has competitive status. The competitive service includes all civilian positions in the federal government that are not specifically excepted from civil service laws by statute, the President, or the Office of Personnel Management. |
| Consultant or Expert | -- A consultant receives a temporary or intermittent appointment in the excepted service to a position with advisory, rather than operational, responsibilities. A similar appointment is made to an expert but he or she can perform operational duties. The excepted service consists of those positions that are not in the competitive service. |
| Foreign Assistance Act Appointment | -- An appointment in the excepted service that the President deems necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961. |
| Limited Term or Limited Emergency | -- A nonrenewable SES appointment of an individual who does not meet the conditions for a career appointment and who generally does not intend to remain in government. A limited term appointee serves up to 36 months, and a limited emergency appointee serves up to 18 months. |
| Noncareer Executive Assignment | -- Appointment to a position of an employee who will (1) be deeply involved in the advocacy of Administration programs and support of the controversial aspects of those programs, (2) participate |

significantly in the determination of major political policies of the Administration, or (3) serve principally as personal assistant to or advisor of a Presidential appointee or other key political figure.

Noncareer SES

- A noncompetitive appointment to a position above GS-15 serving at the pleasure of the appointing authority and not meeting the conditions for a career or limited term appointment.

Ramspeck Act
Appointment

- Appointment of a person who has served at least 3 years in the legislative branch in a position in which he or she was paid by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House of Representatives, or for at least 4 years as a secretary or law clerk, or both, in the judicial branch; is separated involuntarily and without prejudice from the legislative or judicial branch; meets applicable qualification requirements for the position; and is appointed within 1 year from the date of his or her separation from the legislative or judicial branch. By appointment to a competitive position under the Ramspeck Act, a person becomes a career employee.

Schedule A

- Appointment to a position at GS-15 or below in the excepted service that is not of a confidential or policymaking nature and for which it is not practicable to hold any examination.

Schedule B

- Appointment to a position at GS-15 or below in the excepted service that is not of a confidential or policymaking nature and for which it is not practicable to hold a competitive examination.

Schedule C

- Appointment of a person to a position at GS-15 or below that is excepted from competitive appointment procedures because of the appointee's policymaking role or confidential working relationship with the agency head or top appointed officials.

APPENDIX I

APPENDIX I

Statutory Noncareer Appointment

- Appointment excepted from civil service rules and regulations by a statute. This includes the Peace Corps Act, Foreign Service Act, and Communications Act.

Temporary

- A nonstatus appointment in either the competitive or excepted service for a specified period.

White House Service Appointment

- Appointment of a person who has served at least 2 years in the immediate Office of the President or on the White House staff, is appointed without a break in service of a full work day, and meets applicable qualification requirements for the position.
